Hand programme (ESP)

Today is the well-known author Isabel Chacon's 80th birthday. The recent winner of the Planeta award, who was unable to attend to receive the prize in person because of her agoraphobia, is celebrating her birthday without any type of public or family event, like she has done in the past. For 43 years Chacon has lived cloistered on the 47th floor of a Madrid skyscraper which has become her fortress, and where everything she needs is delivered to her. That night the occupants of the building are evacuated due to a fire. But for Isabel that is impossible; she simply «cannot» leave home.

For 45 minutes, as the flames approach the rooftop terrace, Isabel will have to make the most important decision of her life, addressing with an intelligent sense of humour her fears, daemons, and all the traumas of her life that have led her to this dilemma, before it's too late.
