Hand programme (ESP)

2020 marked the 100th anniversary of the death of Benito Perez Galdós, one of Spain's most iconic authors. His life and literary career were commemorated with a programme of activities, including Torquemada, under the direction of artistic and theatrical director Juan Carlos Perez de la Fuente.

Ascent and Fall of Francisco Torquemada, a miserable neighbourhood usurer who boasts (although we never believe him) that he is a descendent of the famous inquisitor, and who through a series of unforeseen events is first converted into a respectable businessman, then a senator and later a marquis, to finally find himself obliged to question the meaning of his social ascent on coming face to face with illness and death.

TEATRO CERVANTES | ECHEGARAY DE MÁLAGA

The premiere of Torquemada at Teatros del Canal, with an incredible Pedro Casablanc transformed into multiple characters, was a triumph.
