EmocionArte is a show about the 7 artistic disciplines and the emotions they evoke in us. Art is everything that fills our life with emotions. Something is going on in class: what seemed to be a boring lesson on artistic disciplines turns into a vital experience in which we all actively participate, with the visit of great maestros such as Frida Khalo, Beethoven, Cervantes, Carmen Amaya, Steven Spielberg... amusing and endearing characters that will make us enjoy the arts as never before. With special attention to emotional management in connection with the different artistic expressions.

Escenario Pedagógico is one of the most renown companies of children's theatre and didactic concerts in Spain. It was founded in 2012 in Almeria with the creation of the big hit El rock se cuela en la escuela [Rock sneaks into school], winner of the prize for Entrepreneurial Proposal given by the IAJ (Andalusian Youth Institute). It currently has 8 original shows with which it seeks to find the perfect balance between learning and entertainment.
